La Fabbrica & L'Annexe

Italian restaurant and event venues — Royal Warehouse, Tour & Taxis,
Brussels

September 2026

Who we are

La Fabbrica is an Italian restaurant that has stood for sixteen years under the glass roof of the Royal Warehouse, at the heart of the Tour & Taxis site in Brussels. Lunch on weekdays, brunch on Sundays, private events in the evening.

Adjoining the restaurant, L'Annexe occupies 125 m² over two floors, with its own entrance, a corridor opening onto the glass roof, a bar and an open professional kitchen. More intimate and more flexible, it hosts the Adult Only brunch on Sundays and private events at night. For larger formats the mezzanine opens up and connects the two spaces.

Both spaces can be hired separately or together, for more than 300 guests. The site has coach parking, a rarity in Brussels.

The Sunday brunches

Every Sunday, two brunches run side by side on the same site, for two audiences that never meet. As far as we know, no other address in Brussels offers both formats at the same time.

Kids Friendly brunch — La Fabbrica

- Two sittings: 10.30am and 1pm
- All-you-can-eat sweet and savoury buffet, unlimited drinks
- Bouncy castle, face painting, candy floss, a stilt walker and Toto the balloon-sculpting clown
- Tagliatelle finished in the room inside a wheel of Grana Padano, served at both brunches
- €45 per adult · €49 with a glass of Prosecco · €22 for children aged 3 to 12 · free under 3
- Served without interruption for ten years
- Halloween: 18 and 25 October, 1 and 8 November. Christmas: 6, 13, 20 and 27 December, and 3 January

Adult Only brunch — L'Annexe, guests aged 16 and over

- Two sittings: 11am and 1.30pm · 80 covers
- One formula at €53, buffet and drinks included
- Unlimited Prosecco
- Three live show cookings every thirty minutes: the Baciata, the Meule Pasta — tagliatelle finished in a wheel of Grana Padano — and tiramisu made to order
- Disco ball
- Christmas: 6, 13, 20 and 27 December, and 3 January
